Amending Code

DETAILS

Reason for Legislation

Amending Section 9.36.100 of the Lincoln Municipal Code relating to the unlawful possession of firearms by adding convictions for crimes of assault, unlawful intrusion, violation of custody, domestic assault, first degrees criminal trespass, contributing to the delinquency of a child, public indecency/exposure, operating a vehicle to avoid/flee arrest, any violation of the Nebraska Uniform Controlled Substances Act, unlawful use of toxic compounds, and more than two convictions for DWI and/or refusal to submit to a chemical test, to the pre-existing list of named offenses, conviction of which preclude possession of any firearm.

Discussion (Including Relationship to other Council Actions)

The offenses added by this amendment are either crimes of violence, crimes in which there is a higher probability for violence, crimes involving moral turpitude that have a higher probability for being predicate offenses for more violent crimes, or crimes that demonstrate physical impairment and/or mental impairment as described by the Chief of Police.
